

VICTORY FOR MANN LAW

W. H. Boaz has Walkover in Albemarle.

HAS OVER 500 MAJORITY

The Liquor Men Were Fighting Mr. Boaz, but He Won With Ease, Carrying Most Every Precinct.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., Aug. 1.—Albemarle county, the first in the State in which the Mann liquor law has been made the chief issue, held its Democratic primary to-day. William H. Boaz, the veteran member of the House of Delegates, who was supposed to have the strongest opposition he had ever encountered, had a complete walkover, completely swamping his opponent, W. Samuel Burnley, who was supported by the liquor element. W. R. Duke was nominated by over 400 majority, and hence there will be no change in Albemarle's representation in the House. Mr. Boaz carried every ward in Charlottesville, his majority over Burnley being 148. In the county sixteen out of twenty-two precincts gave Boaz 411 majority. Burnley carrying only three precincts. In the county there was a hot contest for Sheriff, Luchan Watts, the incumbent, winning over J. E. Williams by a narrow margin. The fight was also close between William Garth and Nathaniel McGee for the trusteeship. Indications point to the election of McGee. T. Omocondro was chosen Commissioner of the Revenue for the Southside, defeating W. L. Carpenter.

PETTIT AND ADAMS

They Will Carry Charlotte for Senate and House.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
KEYSVILLE, VA., August 1.—The result of the primary held here today for election of delegates was: Adams, 55; Gaines, 27. For Senate: Pettit, 76; Patterson, 33. Mr. Pettit will carry the county by good majority.

THE MOSBY REUNION

Members of 43d Va. Battalion to Meet at Culpeper Court House.

The tenth reunion of the Forty-third Virginia Battalion, Mosby's command, late of the army of C. S. A., will take place next Wednesday, August 6th, at Culpeper Courthouse, Va. Elaborate preparations have been made by the committee in charge, and it is stated, a royal time may be expected by all who attend. Governor A. J. Montague, Representative W. A. Jones, of Warsaw, Va., and State Senator George S. Shackelford have been invited to deliver addresses, and they are expected to be present.

Mainly About People

Manager Leath has the most attractive list of bookings for the approaching season he has ever had since he took charge of a Richmond house. While the list is by no means complete at the present time, the following will give a general idea of its calibre. The house will open the last week in August with a new version of "The Devil's Auction," which has not been seen here for several years. Here is the list, as far as it goes at present:
E. H. Sothorn, Quinlan and Wall, Faversham, Viola Allen, Lewis, Morrison. When Johnny Comes Marching Home, Nat Willis, Gertrude Coghlan, Smart Set, Fatal Wedding, Two Johns, Paul Gilmore, Silver Slipper, Rehan and Skinner, Percy Hallowell, Adelaide Thurston, Marie Walwright, Elizabeth Kennedy, Black Patti, Harry Beresford, Two Old Cronies, Alberta Gallatin, May Irwin, Eva Munford, When Reuben Comes to Town, Human Fields, Rudolph and Adolph, McFadden Plate, Devil's Auction, Al. G. Hays, Happy Hooligan, Pickings from Puck, Murray and Mack, Lilliputians, Puck Tolly, Rich and Harris' Comedians, The Cavalier, Madam Adeline Patti, Way Down East, Katherine Kinder, The Chaparrone, Wizard of Oz, Nancy Brown, Richard Mansfield, Horeley's Minstrels, The Lily and the Prince, Tim Murphy, George Ober, Country Girl, Irie, Alphonse and Gaston, David Harum, Rose Coghlan, Hot Old Time, When Knighthood Was in Flower, Kecey and Shannon, Rogers Brothers, David Warfield, Burgomaster, King Dodo, The Storke, Creators' Band, Jefferson de Angelis, Florodora, Texas Steer, Al. ## DEFENSE IS ON THE HUNT

Scouring Breathitt County for Witnesses.

STRONG CASE A SURPRISE

Attorney for Commonwealth Had Witnesses Whom, it Was Thought, Would Never Testify Against the Accused Men.

(By Associated Press.)
CYNTHIANA, KY., August 1.—The second trial of Curtis Jett and Thomas White for the murder of J. B. Marcum has been continued one week, and the prosecution is still calling witnesses. Commonwealth's Attorney Byrd has surprised all in securing the attendance here of persons from Breathitt county who it was thought never would testify against either of the defendants. Among the witnesses who fled to the mountains during the trial at Jackson were Henry and George Combs, one of the witnesses for the prosecution in the Jett and White case, now on trial, died here to-day of appendicitis. He was one of the most expert rifle and pistol shots in the mountains of Eastern Kentucky. He was accused for life for killing Mr. Rose at Clay City, but was pardoned after serving some years.

LUPTON'S NAME NOT ON TICKET

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WINCHESTER, VA., August 1.—The opposition of Senator L. Lupton to the race for the State Senate, and that Judge F. S. Tavenner, of Woodstock, has a claim field, although Senator Lupton has not said he will not run, but has refused to enter the primaries because of their not being in accordance with the State Committee's rule of the viva voce plan. His name was not placed on the ticket made up to-day by the Democratic election committee.

There are many candidates for county offices, and no less than six Republicans had their names placed on the ticket to be voted in the Democratic primaries. This is said to be without precedent. Senator Lupton's friends claim that a deal has been made with Shenandoah county Republicans to defeat him, and that two ballot boxes are to be used there unless he gives up the fight.

Injured in a Wreck.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHRYSE, VA., August 1.—Hermon Phenix, a fireman, was injured in a wreck near the Petersburg yard this morning at 4 o'clock, and was brought to his home here on a stretcher. The wreck was caused by the cars piling up in an open switch. He stood at his post bravely, trying to give the signal until the car, on which he was standing, began to tilt, throwing him between the cars. Being an active young man, he scrambled to his feet and climbed the next car, thus escaping instant death. From this he jumped, landing into a deep ditch, partly filled with water. When found he was in a semi-conscious condition, with both ankles sprained, hip injured, body badly bruised. Dr. Bryant was summoned at once, and pronounced his injuries painful, but not serious.

Another Victim Dies.

(By Associated Press.)
LOWELL, MASS., August 1.—Mrs. Eliza Galloway, one of the victims of Wednesday's magazine explosion, died to-day.

at St. John's Hospital. She is the third of this family killed by the explosion, her husband and son having lost their lives. A little girl is now in the hospital. Is the only survivor of the family.

OBITUARY.

Capt. George M. Walker.
Captain George M. Walker, late of the Old Dominion Line, died at his residence, No. 889 Union Street, Brooklyn, on Friday morning, aged seventy-seven. On his retirement from active life, he was the oldest captain sailing out of the port of New York. He was born at sea in July, 1826, his father, being captain of the British brig "Fox." In his early career, he sailed on the "Humboldt," of the New York, Southampton and Harve Steamship Company, then on the "Washington," the "Franklin" and the "Arago." He then became captain of the "Pulmon" and carried cargo to Port Royal during the war in the sixties. He captured the "Margaret and Jessie," blockade runner, the "Banisher," off Wilmington, N. C. The cargo of these two vessels were for the Confederates. Later, Captain Walker commanded the "Richmond," "Niagara," "Albemarle" and innumerable other well known steamers. While on the "Albemarle" he received a gold medal for rescuing the crew of a wrecked schooner. He led an exceedingly active life and retained to the very last years of his seafaring life, his mental and physical faculties. He was held in high esteem by all the officers of the Old Dominion Steamship Company, with whom he was connected for so many years, and was respected by all who came in contact with him.

Captain Walker was the father of thirteen children, the mother and five of whom survive. One of his sons is Mr. H. B. Walker, vice-president of the Old Dominion Steamship Company.

Andrew J. McDowell.

Mr. Andrew J. McDowell died at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his residence, No. 1808 Carlington Street. He had been in ill health for a long time. Previous to his sickness, he was with the Chicago and Ohio Cattle Company. Mr. McDowell is survived by a widow, four sons and three daughters.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 5 o'clock from Christ Episcopal Church, of which he was a member.

Miss Julia W. Morris.

The death of Miss Julia W. Morris, a sister of the late Junius A. Morris, and daughter of Albert A. Morris, died Friday in Ashbury Park, N. Y. The remains will reach Richmond this morning at 8:30 o'clock, arriving at the Byrd-Street Station. Carriages will be sent to the residence of friends and relatives to Shook Hill Cemetery, where the funeral services will be held and the burial will take place.

Mr. John Winn.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., August 1.—Mr. John Winn, one of the oldest and most highly respected citizens of Petersburg, died last evening at his home on West Main Street. He was seventy-three years of age, and was the oldest member of Highland Lodge, No. 1, Masons, and the oldest Mason in the city.

Mrs. Mary A. Poland.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., August 1.—Mrs. Mary A. Poland died last evening at the residence of her niece, in this city. She was eighty-eight years of age, and was the widow of the late William Poland, of this city.

The funeral will take place to-morrow at 5 o'clock from Grace Episcopal Church.

Miss Barbara Thruston.

WINCHESTER, VA., August 1.—Mrs. Coleman R. Robinson, who has been visiting friends in this city, was called to Louisville yesterday morning by the death of her aunt, Miss Barbara Thruston, a member of the well known Virginia family of that name.

HORRIBLE MURDER OF GOOD CITIZEN

Abram Surasky is Hacked to Pieces in South Carolina.

(By Associated Press.)

AIKEN, S. C., August 1.—Abram Surasky, a peddler, living here, was murdered near Hawthorne, in Aiken county, on Wednesday evening by two white men, George Toole and Lee Green. The body was not discovered until Friday evening. The murdered man was thirty years of age, and one of five brothers who ran small stores in Aiken. All peaceful citizens.

On last Tuesday Mr. Surasky loaded his wagon with his packs and started on a round. He is supposed to have stopped at Green's house to sell his wares, as it was his custom to do, and it was then that the two men carried out their plan of robbery and murder.

Surasky was shot twice in the back with a gun, one arm was almost severed from his body, and his head and body were hacked horribly with an axe. When the body was discovered it was impossible to recognize any semblance of a human being in the face, as decomposition had set in. Buzzards flying over the spot attracted the attention of men passing by. Sheriff Alderman and the coroner went to the scene of the murder early this morning. On searching for clues the officers found a pool of blood in the yard of Lee Green's house and other blood stains were discovered on melon rinds and the bloody axe was found under the house.

At the coroner's inquest it was developed by the clues found that Toole and Green shot Surasky twice in the back, and then cut him up with the axe. The shots evidently did not suffice to subdue their victim, and the axe was used to finish him. After their work was accomplished they loaded the corpse in the victim's own wagon and drove to a lonely spot in the woods and tied the horse to a tree and left it. The horse becoming hungry, broke loose and pulled the wagon, with its ghastly load, away from the tree where he was tied to within a mile and a half of Hawthorne, whence it was discovered.

A negro man is suspected of being an accomplice in the crime, but so far the negro is free. Lee Green is a bad character.

He attempted to kill a peddler named Levi, from Augusta, Ga., some time ago. Levi was wounded, but escaped. Surasky only had about $5 in money. This was taken, but his watch and pack were not disturbed by his murderers. The authorities are confident that they have the right parties.

TROOPS AT DANVILLE

Company There Ordered Home and Relieved by Another.

(By Associated Press.)

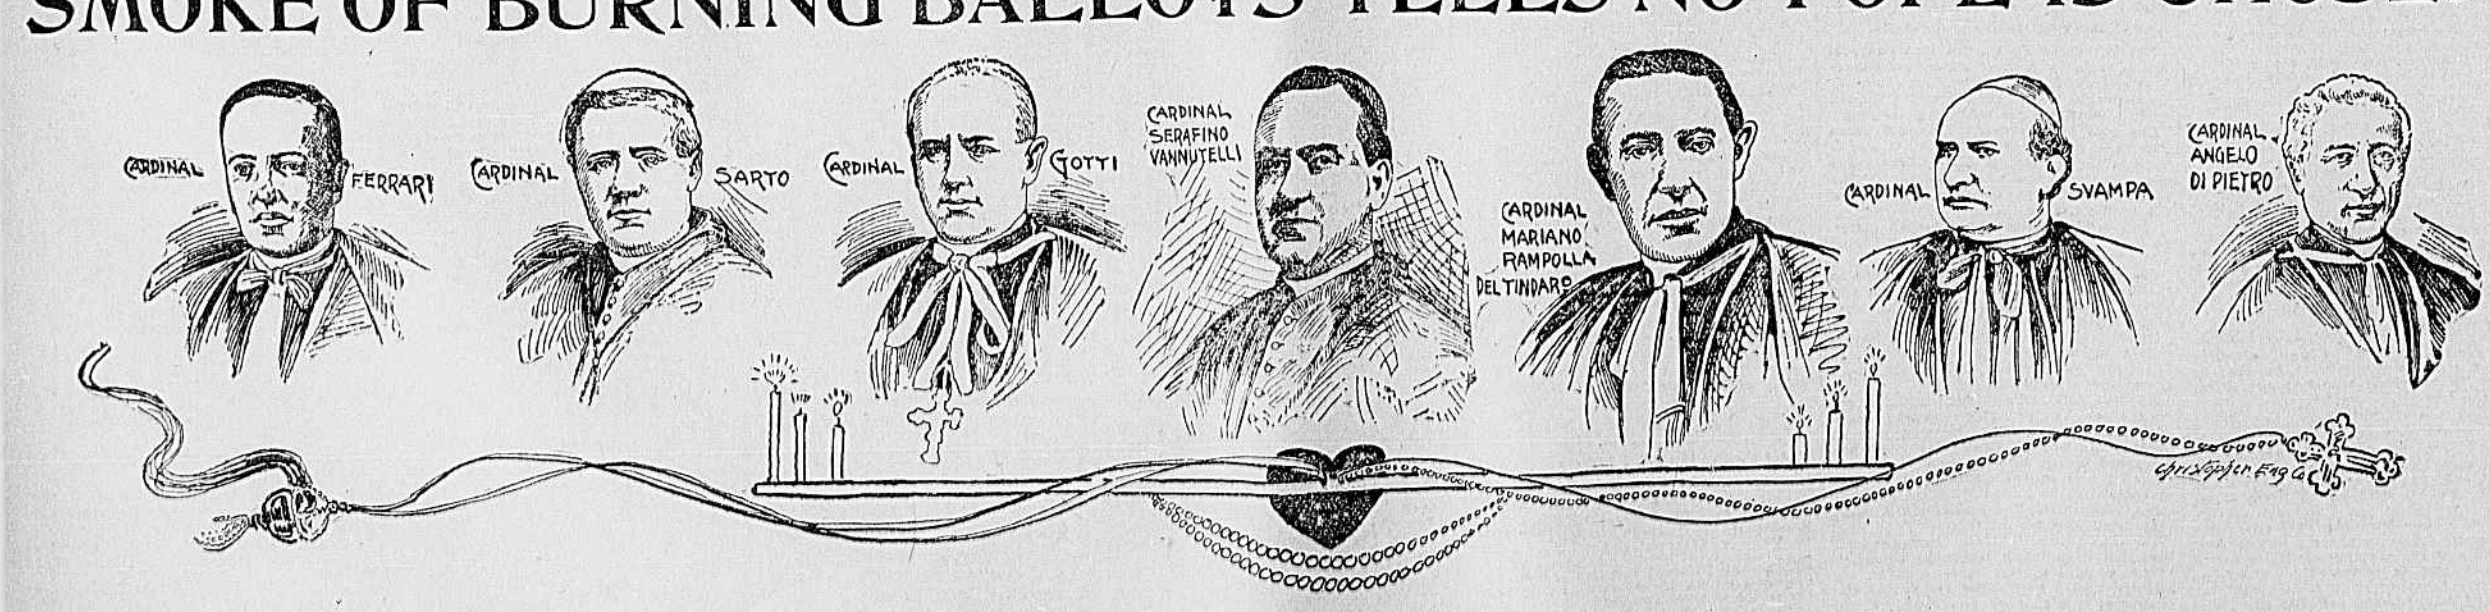

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., August 1.—A joint General Staff to-day issued an order directing Companies H and I, Seventh Infantry, I. N. G., which have been on duty at Danville, to proceed to their home station, and ordering Company A, Fourth Infantry, of Arcola, to proceed to Danville. The new company will report to Sheriff Whitlock for orders. It is believed that the troops will be needed at Danville only a few days more.

SMOKE OF BURNING BALLOTS TELLS NO POPE IS CHOSEN.

POSSIBLE SUCCESSORS TO POPE LEO XIII.

(By Associated Press.)
ROME, August 1.—The first day of the conclave has ended and no Pope has been elected. Both this morning and afternoon the members of the Sacred College, except Cardinals Herrera y Espinosa, Cretton, Langenieux and Coultie, who were confined to their cells by illness, entered the Sistine Chapel, where, after the solemn ritual, appointed for the occasion, they dropped their ballots in the chalice. These gave to no candidate the necessary forty-two votes was made known to Rome and to the world by the smoke of burning ballots which issued from the Sistine Chapel. To-morrow the cardinals will vote again, both in the morning and afternoon, but what the chances are of their arriving at a decision before Monday no one can tell. It was reported this evening that the Rampolla party was in the ascendant, but the final result, as the vote of Pope Leo's Secretary of State may be split up or given in its entirety to some other cardinal. Apparently reliable information, which, however, it is impossible to verify, is to the effect that Cardinal Rampolla received at the first ballot this morning 29 votes. Serafino Vannutelli, 12; Gotti, 7; Oreglia, 4; Di Pietro, 4; Capocciolo, 4; and Agellardi, 3, the remainder being scattered. Rumor generally assigns Monday as the most likely day upon which an election will occur. No one here seriously expected the cardinals to select a pope on the first ballot, hence this morning few of the pope have were present in the piazza of St. Peter's, though in the immediate neighborhood there a thousand troops and gendarmes stood idle in the shade of the colonnades. Soon after four, however, crowds began to gather. Every eye was turned toward the long, narrow tube, with a conical top which channel, it might with an improvised smoke outlet for a novel instead of the world-watched beacon, which alone can give the sign awaited by so many millions of people. The bells of the Basilica rang out the call to the vesper, but none went in. The priests passing the steps of St. Peter's prayer book in hand, muttered the evening office with an ever watchful eye on the Sistine Chapel. The suspense became intense; even the street urchins, who had come in large numbers to gather the discarded ends of cigarettes thrown away by the nervous crowd, stopped their work and gazed to ward the chapel. Several false alarms of "Ecco la effumata" (there is the smoke) caused a thrill of excitement. Then came a rumor that a Pope had been elected, and many persons rushed to the Basilica in order to get good seats when the announcement should be made. The impression that a choice had been reached was heightened by the appearance upon the walls of the Vatican of a few officials in full uniform, as for a great ceremony. When 6 o'clock boomed out from the big clock of St. Peter's there was a sea of upturned faces focused in intense anticipation on the Sistine Chapel's crooked smoke-stack. Three minutes later came another cry of "Ecco la effumata." This time it was true. From the conical top of the stack of the chapel curled out a tiny streak of smoke. From the crowd came a sigh of relief. Still watching, with strained necks, they saw the smoke thicken and then die down, and in two minutes all trace of to-day's futile voting had vanished into air.
